

A P R O C L A M A T I O N
(4-H Week)

WHEREAS, there are approximately 50,000 rural boys and girls enrolled in 4-H Club work in the State of South Carolina, and

WHEREAS, the 4-H Clubs have made their influence felt in proper education for farming, homemaking, and rural community life, and

WHEREAS, the building of a better home community means a better world community, and

WHEREAS, in the changing world of agricultural values and practices, 4-H Club members will constitute a most important group which can show the way to improved methods and practices,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, J. Strom Thurmond, Governor of South Carolina, do proclaim the week of March 4-12, 1950, as 4-H CLUB WEEK in South Carolina, for the purpose of paying tribute to our youth who are enrolled in this important patriotic organization and to encourage the continued growth and influence of the 4-H Clubs.

Given under my hand and seal
this 24 day of February
in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty.

J. Strom Thurmond, Governor
